From Pastor Ralph's Desk:

He Arose Come What May

Intro: "Up from the grave He arose with a mighty triumph o're His foes. He arose a victor from the dark domain, and He lives forever with His saints to reign. He arose, He arose, Hallelujah, Christ arose." so this great resurrection hymn lets us know that no one or things could prevent Jesus from arising from the dead no matter how hard they tried. He arose victorious over all opposition and impossibilities not only because the song tells us so but most importantly because the Word of God tells us so. It tells us that not the religious leaders and politicians of the day could hold Him back though they tried. It also tells us that the soldiers, though there were possibly as many as a hundred of them at the tomb, could not keep Him in the grave. It also tells us that the massive stone rolled in front of the opening to the tomb, could not keep Him in place. As a matter of fact, He had already arisen before the angel rolled the stone away. All of this is found in the gospel records of the resurrection.

The Apostle Paul reminds us that neither sin nor death could hold Jesus in the grave. Paul, also, reminds us that no power, authority or dominion could keep Jesus in the grave and that includes the devil himself.

So let us sing that hymn with all the might that we have and then some because since no foe could hold Him in the grave that also means that it won't be able to hold us there either, for our resurrection is connected to His.

Let me challenge you today to take some time to read some of the resurrection Scriptures in the Word of God. Let me share some of those references with you: Matt.27:57-28:20; Luke 24; Acts 2:22-36; Rom. 1:1-6; I Cor. 15; Eph.1:15-23; I Pet. 1:3-9; Rev. 1:9-18. May these verses lead you to experience and uplifting of Spirit because you serve a risen Savior.

Thank You Note

Great Swamp Baptist Church, let me thank you from the bottom of my heart for blessing Tammy and I with the privilege of going to the Martinsville Speedway race. The tickets you purchased for us place us in a great location. Also, the hotel room you got for us was absolutely fabulous. We had a great time. You folks are the best and I am grateful to be your Pastor.

Many Christians give their spirit and heart to the Lord and they keep their head to themselves. Our intellect must be satisfied by being slain and replaced by the mind of Christ. Prayer subjects us to God's mind and will.
