Ain't Gonna Study War No More

Isaiah 2:1-4; Micah 4:1-4; Eph. 2:14-22

Intro: Last week while Tammy and I were on vacation, we spent part of two days in Gettysburg, PA. our time there brings to mind the old negro spiritual song called either, "Down By the Riverside" or "Ain't Gonna Study War No More."

The lyrics of this song was written or sung by the slaves about the battles of their lives. At the end of their lives down by the riverside getting ready to cross the river of death over to that golden shore where all their battles will be over and they won't need to study war no more. Well, while in Gettysburg, I got the image of this song in my mind.

Now I think that I got the image of this song on my mind because it not only is a negro spiritual song but it is also Scripturally based. In at least two places in the Old Testament, we are told that we won't study war no more and we will turn our weapons of war into farming equipment.

While in Gettysburg where the bloodiest battle of the Civil War took place, I got a glimpse of the old negro spiritual song and the passage of the Old Testament.

I. First, let me give you the setting for these two particular passages of Scripture which we have read. (Is. 2:1-4; Micah 4:1-4).

Both of these sets of Scripture say about word for word the same thing. Therefore, they are referring to the same setting.

So, what is the particular setting? The answer is found in the phrase, "In the last days". Once you read the passage, you understand that the last days being referred to are certainly days that have not yet taken place. Now the reason we know is because it tells us that Israel will be the ruling nation of the world. That the Lord Himself will be ruling directly out of Jerusalem over the nations of the world and war won't be taking place.

There has never been a time like that yet. However, the Bible teaches us that in the last days, this will take place. Most evangelical conservatives believers and scholars, including myself, believe that this refers to the millennial or thousand year reign of Christ upon the earth following the seven years of tribulation. At that time, Christ will reign victoriously.

Israel's power as the leading nation will be restored by Christ Himself at His second coming and all hostilities in the world will cease. There will be no need for military training anymore and all weapons of warfare will be melted won and turned into tools for farming. Oh, what day that will be.

II. Now, let me take us on a little tour of the scenery in Gettysburg, PA.

I love to study history, particularly the history of our nation. So, there was no way that we would get this close to Gettysburg, PA on our way to the races at Pocono Speedway and not stop and spend some time there at the national military park.

Now, what I found there was a one hundred percent contrast to what was there more than one hundred and fifty years ago. What took place more than one hundred fifty years ago was the most horrific battle of the entire Civil War. In over three days of fighting between Lee's army of northern Virginia, around 70,000 strong, and Meade's army of the Potomac, around 90,000 strong, there was more than 51,000 casualties. That means that many were either dead, captured, missing or wounded.

What had been a beautiful country town and surrounding had now become a literal hell on earth place to be. The dead bodies of nearly 7,000 men lay roughly over an area of two and a half square miles. Along side these dead persons were hundreds of dead horses that the soldiers had been riding. Also, many cows that were out on the battlefield were slaughtered as well. The Blood of these persons, the wounded and dead animals was puddle up in some places in great depths and also covered the floors and furniture of the more than one hundred buildings in town that all quickly turned into temporary hospitals.

It all was hellish as well because the battle had destroyed thousands of trees from the cannons firing and as well destroyed many homes and barns in the area. Crops that were growing were completely demolished and the stench was unbearable. It lasted not for days but for months. It took four months before the last wounded soldiers could be removed from the town. So it was not a place that anyone would actually want to just joyously go and visit. Rather, it would have been a place to avoid for its hellish condition.

Now the contrast of more than one hundred and fifty years is unbelievable. No one going there today could ever imagine that the most horrific battle ever fought on American soil took place in this town. It is one of the most beautiful places I've ever been. Beautiful rolling hills and meadows filled with amazingly gorgeous wild flowers. The old houses of the town are beautiful and cared for and desirable to look at. The people are as friendly as they come.

As I looked at this, I realized that no battle has ever come to this place since then. It is no more a place of war and instead of using the weapons of war, the fields are being cultivated by the tools of farming. Oh, what a joyous feeling overcame Tammy and I as we considered these things on our tour of Gettysburg.

III. Finally, now let us consider how this relates to us now.

My Scripture for tying it altogether comes from the Book of Ephesians chapter two beginning with verse fourteen through verse twenty-two. The jest of these verses is telling us that Jesus Christ has broken down the wall of hostilities between Jews and Gentiles alike. Through our relationship with Christ, we have been made one body and one family. So, even today even before the final last days, we can already, with one another, tear down through Christ's leadership, our walk of hostility and enjoy peace with one another. For Jesus our peace maker has come into our hearts. May we, with His help, learn to love one another; forgive one another and talk of war with each other no more. While our nation has to be prepared to fight against any who would attack us, we as God's people must work to show the world that our hostilities against one another is no more, and instead of fighting one another, we are helping one another. Our weapons against each other have become tools to build up one another.

Concl. Oh what the Prince of Peace our Savior and Lord is. When He comes peace will be supreme and war won't be no more—but until then may we as God's people already be a living example that peace through Christ can already be at work here and now.

Jesus Loves You

[Marriage Conference]
Look Up Lodge
lookuplodge.com

Two houses sit beside each other in a neighborhood. They look very differently from one another. But when the foundations were laid, they looked almost identical. This is the basic idea behind our marriage conference. Sometimes your marriage is your marriage - the way you communicate, the way you show affection, the way you handle conflict all may be very different from your neighbor. However the foundation of every great marriage is very much the same. It must be built on at least a few foundational principles if it's going to survive, let alone rise above the storms of life. These principles are: understanding real love, understanding the differing values of sex between men and women, and understanding the basic principles of lasting change. These are some of the principles we will be focusing on during our marriage weekend.

Prayer and Fasting. These are important aspects of knowing God and His will. Humbling oneself before God requires a yielding of oneself to Him. Prayer is the calling out to God for help. Fasting is laying aside the things of this world and centering our heart and mind on God and His desires.
