Thank You

Dear church Family,

Words cannot express my thankfulness for your great outpouring of love in my time of need. When Pastor announced the need for food, only hour before my husband's Memorial Service, I wondered how that could ever happen! I felt like Jesus' disciples who had suggested Jesus sent the multitudes away so they could find food and Jesus said, "You feed them!" I was new in town-no idea where I'd find food...we had to be at the chapel in a few hours...and when that beautiful service was over, we went home...20 minutes later, church people filed in with huge pans of delicious chicken, bags of salads, huge thermos of tea, desserts, rolls, butter, dishes of rice, veggies, sauces, plates, cups and tableware, as my sister and I cleared an area for pies, cakes and cookies, overwhelmed by the response!!! Jesus' disciples gathered 12 baskets of leftovers...I had to set up a table next to the refrigerator to sort the leftovers. We returned 4 unopened containers for the church supper and packed 2 boxes of 5 to 8 portions for the 2 families of the dear Christian woman who cared for Phil 2 times each day bringing the light and love of Jesus with them!!! THANK YOU for making this possible! Now, I am in the midst of financial problems but through you all, I am able to say: "My god shall supply all my needs, through His riches in glory." Thank You! God bless you for blessing me!!!
